

November Oak Grove council notes

Pastor Lee felt Core Values Conversation went really well, We are working on the wording and should have something soon.

Current offerings continue to run a little short, but expenses are below budget by $25,000 so far this year.

Carol Twiete is going to do a financial audit of the church for our year end fiscals.

Communion distribution to be file by method from now on.

Our New office manager Amy Hanson is doing a great job.
